A Compendium of Useful Information

April, 2025

Old West Range Wars -- Part 1

A range war, sometimes called a range conflict or cattle war, is a type of conflict, usually violent, most commonly seen in the Old West during the 19th and early 20th centuries. The subject of these conflicts was control of "open range", -- range land freely used for cattle grazing, or as sheep pasture, which gave these conflicts its name. Typically, they were disputes over water rights, grazing rights, or cattle ownership.

Range wars occurred prior to the Taylor Grazing Act of 1934, which regulated grazing allotments on public land. Well-known range wars included the Pleasant Valley War, Colfax County War, Castaic Range War, San Elizario Salt War, Mason County War, Porum Range War, Johnson County War, Pecos War, Fence Cutting Wars, Sheep Wars, Barber-Mizell feud, and the Stuart's Stranglers conflict.

In the 19th and 20th centuries, violence was usually involved. Today, range wars are usually non-violent competitions for scarce resources, such as between ranchers and environmentalists, or between ranchers and supporters of wild horses. In our modern vernacular, "range war" is a slang term for a turf war or disagreement about proper hierarchy or relationship, and is often used in a joking manner. In this sense, the term is found in politics and business.

What An Unbranded Cow Has Cost* by Frederic Remington
Depicts the aftermath of a range war between cowboys and supposed rustlers. 1895

Old West range wars have been the subject of many movies and novels. Some examples are:

- Range War (1939) is a movie starring Hopalong Cassidy, about a group of ranchers in conflict with a railway company.
- The Westerner (1940) is a film dealing with cattlemen versus homesteaders in a territory run by Judge Roy Bean.
- Range War, is a 2000 novel by Luran Paine about the Johnson County War.
- The Virginian, is a 1902 novel by Owen Wister, based on the Johnson County Range War. It presents the case of the large ranchers, and justifies lynching as frontier justice for cattle rustling. It was adapted four times as films.
- Shane is a 1953 movie starring Alan Ladd, that tells the story of a gunfighter taking the side of farmers against cattlemen, during a fictional range war, loosely based on the Johnson County Range War.
- The Redhead from Wyoming is a 1953 film starring Maureen O'Hara, featuring a fictionalized Johnson County War.
- Man Without a Star, is a 1955 film, starring Kirk Douglas, about a sharpshooting drifter who returns to Wyoming to work for a beautiful rancher, who plans to fence in her land's wide open spaces, which angers other ranchers and soon erupts into a bloody range war.

- To The Last Man: A Story of the Pleasant Valley War, is a novel by Western author Zane Grey, exploring the Pleasant Valley War in 1880s Arizona.
- Oklahoma! is a 1943 Broadway musical, and 1955 film, about a cowboy in love with a farm girl, complicated by a rivalry between local farmers and ranchers, over fences and water rights.
- El Dorado is a 1966 movie, starring John Wayne and Robert Mitchum, about an aging gunfighter (Wayne) who tries to help a lawman friend (Mitchum), after being hired to intervene in a range war.
- Centennial is a 1978 mini-series, which features an episode titled 'The Shepherds', which depicted a range war between cattlemen and farmers/sheepherders.
- Texas is a 1985 historical fiction novel by James A. Michener, detailing the conflicts that evolved due to the introduction of barbed wire in cattle country in the 1880s.
- Tom Horn is a 1980 film, starring Steve McQueen, about an ex-army scout, hired by ranchers to kill cattle rustlers, who gets into trouble with the corrupt local officials, when he's suspected of killing a boy.
- Johnson County War is a 1989 song by Country Western singer/songwriter Chris LeDoux. It is featured on his Powder River album.
- The Range War, a ballad by Todd Rundgren, focuses on a relationship between a boy whose "uncle runs cattle" and a girl whose "daddy runs sheep," and hints their relationship was opposed by both families, fueling this particular range war.
- Open Range is a 2003 film, starring Robert Duval and Kevin Costner, in which free-grazers take on a cattle baron who tries to steal their herd, using hired assassins.
- A range war was the subject of at least one episode of long-running old time radio show, Gunsmoke, called "Jaliscoe".
- A range war was used as a plot in an episode entitled War and Love and the Whole Damned Thing, during the 12th season of the TV show Dallas.
- King of Texas is a 2002 television movie, transposing the plot of William Shakespeare's King Lear into the 19th-century American West.
- 1923 is a 2023 prequel to the Yellowstone franchise written by Taylor Sheridan, featuring a ranch war in several episodes.
- Several episodes of Have Gun Will Travel feature the conflict between farmers and ranchers, over control of range land.
- The 2005 video game Gun featured a range war described as the "Resistance", that was based around the Colfax County War.
- The 2009 Western game Call of Juarez: Bound in Blood features a side mission that was reminiscent of a range war, involving assisting a settler against a powerful cattleman.

Old age is rearing its ugly head -- I can no longer comfortably "handle" long-barreled heavy revolvers.

Swapping them all out for shorter/lighter revolvers:

1. A Pair of EMF (Pietta) 7-1/2 inch Great Western II El Malo revolvers 38/357, Octagonal barrels, smooth light hammer springs, coil/plunger hand springs.

I gave them to Coffinmaker & he put an 11-degree forcing cone on them, filed the bolts, so they properly fit the cylinder bolt notches, and checked the timing.

Only shot in 1 match. $1200 for the pair Face-to-Face (no FFL, no shipping)

2. An UNFIRED EMF (Pietta) Great Western II Buntline in 45 Long Colt 12-inch Round barrel, smooth light hammer spring, coil/plunger hand spring.

I gave it to Coffinmaker & he filed the bolt, so they properly fit the cylinder bolt notches, and checked the timing.

Never Fired $600 Face-to-Face (no FFL, no shipping)

3. A Pair of USFA Rodeos in 38 Special

Long Hunter purchased these from USFA, so they have "LH" Serial numbers 5-1/2-inch

These were my secondary revolvers for many years, as I mostly shot cap guns

They have been shot with both smokeless and black powder

They have good bores, and wear on the "bluing", if you can call their blackish finish that It has taken on a grayish patina

Used, but not abused

$2900 Face-to-Face (no FFL, no shipping)

Winchester 109543 24 12 Ga Side/Side Double Barrel Blue

Winchester Model 24 SXS Shotgun. 2-3/4" chambers Full Choke and Modified. Mfg date: 1952. The Model 24 competes with the Stevens 311 and Savage/Fox Model B as an affordable, utility SXS and a total of over 116,200 were Mfgd. The Model 24 is a true hammerless gun, as opposed to having concealed hammers like most double guns, since it is striker fired. It was produced only as a field grade gun with blued receiver and barrels, wide 7/16" raised solid rib, smooth black walnut stock with lacquer finish, double triggers, and spring powered extractors that elevates the shells when the gun is opened. The forged steel receiver body of the Model 24 is rounded. The Model 24 was designed with two lumps, one centered beneath each barrel, leaving a tunnel of space between the two lumps. It has a clean breech face and is held closed by a single underbolt that engages a notch in the double barrel lumps. In the area between the 24's dual lumps is a cocking slide and the extractor. The Model 24 is about as wide through the breech and receiver as a SXS gun can be. The weight is about 7-1/2 pounds. It is a 12 Ga gun with 30" barrels. It measures 46-1/2" in overall length and has a 14-1/4" length of pull. Approximate drop is 1-1/2" at comb and 2-1/2" at heel. $500

News & Notes

Six Stages

We shoot six stages at Tusco. A few people have told us that they drive a good distance to shoot at Tusco and would like to shoot as much as possible.

Obviously we only have room for five shooting bays. So what we do is shoot the first stage you start on twice. Consider it a warm up stage. Only five stages will be scored. You can take your best time on your first stage. If you don't want to shoot it twice you do not have to. This would provide more shooting for our shooters.

New SASS Magazine

With the new release of the SASS Quarterly Cowboy Chronicle, I once again would like to start collecting any unwanted issues of the magazine. We will use these for our promotional events, like our Tusco Long Riders' Day at Kames Sports. Please either black out or cut off your name and address or I will do it before they are passed out. Thank you!

Facebook Page

When you make a post about Tusco or share pictures on Facebook, include #TuscoLongRiders. Let everyone see what we are all about.

News & Notes

Cowboy Swap Meet at Monthly Shoots

As a reminder, feel free to bring your old Cowboy Gear, Guns and Equipment to sell at our monthly shoots. It's a good opportunity to sell some of your unwanted stuff to your fellow shooters. Your items are your responsibility.

A little bit about us

Jim & I have always wanted a family of our own. Although we love our 5 fur kids, we long for a baby. After learning we were unable to conceive a child, Jim and I decided to pursue the adoption of a newborn. Adoption costs are astronomical (anywhere from 25k to 50k or higher) and although we were able to raise some with our savings, GoFundMe page, and church donations, we are still lacking the funds needed to apply for a match. We decided to take our love of crafting and open a side business to hopefully raise some more funds for our future family. Designs By Scamper is a tribute to our pup Scamper who passed away in 2015 from cancer.
